FIGURE 1.4: Patient-specific data assimilation flow chart. Patient-specific modelling is intended to simulate reliable status of a patient, from the clinical measurements. Uncertain parameters are tuned through data assimilation.